"I was very impressed by everything in Cyprus during a recent visit. The hotel is really nice and right on the beach. It is about 1km into the harbour area of Paphos, but easily walkable, or you can use the bus service. There are also restaurants around the hotel.

The golf courses are also very good and are all very different. They were all in great condition when I was there and I am sure they will be in April too.

Paphos airport is 15 minutes away, and the best way to the hotel is just to take a taxi from the airport. It is more economical than booking transfers.

There are plenty of things to do on the free days and the hotel guest relations team will advise you and book them for you. 2024 will be our first visit to Cyprus, and I am sure it will be a great success."

Paphos:

The charming west coast town of Paphos is set around an attractive little harbour, whose picturesque open-air fish restaurants line a quayside alongside many bright fishing boats.

Paphos has an air of holiday charm combined with history and olden-day elegance. The lower part of the town, known as Kato Paphos - literally lower Paphos - has a life of its own. Down near the sea, home of the harbour, the fish taverns, souvenir shops and several modern hotels with important archaeological sites around them.

Paphos is known as the "Playground of Aphrodite" and the "Aphrodite's Rock", birthplace of the goddess, just dramatically out to sea, can be found some 16 miles east of the town.
